

News from Creative Places Tipperary Town for Artists and The Creative Sector April 2023

Creative Places Tipperary Town is a three-year developmental arts programme aimed at supporting those who live and work in Tipperary Town to collaborate with artists and creative practitioners.

We are seeking a Project Assistant and several experienced Artists to support project development and encourage active participation in making art and using creative processes.

More information about Creative Places Work Opportunities can be found at the following links:

- Project Assistant Role
- Public Programming Artists
- Socially Engaged Artists in Residence

The project has funds to support the development of the arts and creative sector in Tipperary and wants to hear about the development priorities of local artists.

Join others working in the creative sector at Creative Places Connects Artists and Creative Practitioners to talk about your work as it relates to community and sense of place.

This new forum aims to support those who either work in or want to work in the socially engaged arts sector, it will allow you to be an active part of the Creative Places process and could lead to mentoring, professional development and / or paid work opportunities.

Creative Places project goals in Tipperary include opportunities for artists to make new work, collaborate with others and develop skills.

Thursday 27 April, 1.30 – 3pm OR 5 – 6.30pm

Excel Arts Centre, Art Gallery (4th Floor)

Excellent refreshments provided.

Book to attend by emailing creative.places@youthworktipperary.ie

If you cannot make this session but would like to get involved, please email creative.places@youthworktipperary.ie. We will host an online session if there is demand.
