

News from Creative Places Tipperary Town, April 2023 For people who live or work in Tipperary

- Would you like to see more art activities happening in Tipperary Town?
- Do you enjoy being creative?
- Do you have ideas about what a Creative Place is or could be?

If you answer yes to these questions, then you could be a Creative Places Activator.

Join the first meeting of the Creative Places Activators.
Meet other people, share ideas, get creative and chat.
Excellent refreshments provided.
No experience or commitment required.
The workshop is free and you can turn up without booking,

Tuesday 18 April
1.30 – 3pm OR 5 – 6.30pm
Excel Arts Centre
Art Gallery (4th Floor)

Tipperary Town is one of twelve places nationally to take part in an initiative aimed at getting more of us doing arts activities.

You may have recently seen some beautiful artworks in shop windows around Town. They were all made by local people.
Thanks to every single person who got creative and made a work of art that helped us anticipate and celebrate the arrival of spring.

For more information email creative.places@youthworktipperary.ie

Artworks by students at St. Ailbe's School